PALESTINE, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 18, 1903.

TOWN HELPING.

Pursuing the line of thought of town helping, as mentioned in last Saturday's and Monday's issues of the HERALD, many practical ideas suggested themselves. The idea of spending Palestine money in Palestine, while by no means the most important movement, was presented first because it is the easiest one to put into practice, requiring no organization or capital investment, but simply a loyal determination to patronize home people in preference to outside concerns, who contribute nothing to the growth or support of the town.

One of the most needful campaigns for Anderson county and Palestine, next to the union of interests and energies, is the locating of a larger farming element on the lands tributary to this town. This is essentially an agricultural country, and the town that prospers must have a substantial country trade. It would pay Palestine and her business men if they would devise a plan whereby several hundred industrious farmers could be located in Anderson county, granting them a suitable offer to obtain lands on long time, easy payments. Thousands of people are coming into Texas looking for homes, and it would be easy enough to interest intelligent men in a good business proposition of this character.

With due appreciation of the great good in the way of an advertisement accomplished by the carnivals held here the past two years, we believe it the same amount of money that is expended on these shows was turned in this effort to secure permanent settlers, much more lasting good would result to our town and county, and naturally to trade interests. We have a great deal of land that is paying no profit now, but through a plan of this kind could be made dividend payers.

The HERALD regrets that there is not in Palestine an active board of trade that can take hold of such propositions.

It is a fact, nevertheless, that we need more farmers in Anderson county.

It is a further and more important fact that the future growth and prosperity of Palestine as a city depends on an increased country trade. You can't go around this truth, and the country must develop first.

THE POOR.

Many of us think we have a hard time in this old world, but we are living easy compared to the suffering that surrounds us.

Palestine harbors but few real poor—those who actually suffer for the necessities of life, but there are many who cannot afford the luxuries, and as a result, many a poor little tot will not be visited by Santa Claus this Christmas, unless the charity inclined come to the rescue again. Many little tots will not have sufficient warm clothing to keep the body comfortably warm.

Last year the HERALD inaugurated a movement to give these little ones a Santa Claus, and to help the unfortunate to a "Merry Christmas, and the success of the movement brought comfort and happiness to hundreds, both old and young.

The merchants took up the movement, and the good women of the city were soon in line, and the plan was a grand success.

Out of this movement a permanent organization was effected. Now, the HERALD suggests that these good women call a meeting soon, appoint committees and go to work. They will find more to do this Christmas than last, and to do it thoroughly more time will be required.

Every possible effort should be made to locate every deservingly poor person in the city, and ascertain what will bring to him or her the greatest happiness. The HERALD feels sure there are hundreds in Palestine who will assist in this work when called upon.

Use can be made of all kinds of clothing—clothing that the possessors have no earthly use for, blankets, comforts, money, etc.

The HERALD insists that work should begin at once.

This weather will make warm clothing sell.

FORTUNATE is the man who has a well-filled coal bin and a big fat wood pile.

THE first hard freeze of the season, and the temperature dropped from warm tropical zephyrs to a howling blizzard, with icycles long as your arm.

NEVER give up! Keep kicking! If you are hanging on to a dead proposition, too dead to ever revive, turn loose and tackle something else. Never give up!

EVERYTHING indicates that the race question is going to be the paramount issue with the Democrats. That is a question that must be settled soon, and settled for good and all time to come.

Ladies and Children Invited.

All ladies and children who cannot stand the shocking strain of laxative syrups, cathartics, etc., are invited to try the famous Little Early Risers. They are different from all other pills. They do not purge the system. Even a double dose will not gripe, weaken or sicken; many people call them the Easy Pill. W. H. Howell, Houston, Tex., says nothing better can be used for constipation, sick headache, etc. Bob Moore, Lafayette, Ind., says all others gripe and sicken, while DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work well and easy. Sold by Avenue Drug Store.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by all druggists.

The Salve That Heals

NEW YORK LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, TEXAS, NOV. 17.

Dear Editors:

I will try and scratch up some more news, as I saw my last letter in print. Health is very good at this writing, no one sick as I know of.

Miss Fannie Crawford has been down with slow fever, but is up now.

Mr. Editors, I wish you were down here to help us all sing. We have sing two or three times a week. There was singing at Mr. Watkins' last night. They all reported a nice time.

Mr. R. A. Pate has moved into his new home, and is preparing to farm another year. He left for Palestine Sunday on business.

Mr. Henry Pate says he is going to open a barber shop at Percilla.

I am proud to see more of the correspondents coming out. I love to read the correspondence.

News is scarce in this part of the moral vineyard, and I will ring off and come again.

Success to the grand old Herald and its many readers.
